"In 1897 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said Dyspepsia, some Consumption. One said I would no live until Spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits and doctors' prescriptions. I could not digest anything I ate; then I picked up one of your Almanacs and it happened to be my life-saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of KODOL and the benefit I received from the bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., 1906. His Own Idea.
Little Ted Brown was a strenuous lad, and had formed the not unusual habit of kicking and thumping his playmates.

One day his mother found him not only kicking and thumping one of his friends, but even spitting on him.

She was dumfounded at this, and taking Ted into the house, said to him: "Ted, I don't know what to make of you. I think the devil has got into your head and taught you this kicking and striking and spitting."

Ted, getting more indignant every second, looked up at his mother and said: "Well, the devil may have taught me the kicking and striking, but this here spitting is my own idea."
